KATONA TWINS

Critically acclaimed by the Daily Telegraph as "the classical world's best known guitar duo," Peter and Zoltan Katona effortlessly transfer from strictly classical into more popular musical genres. They have given recitals in the major concert venues throughout the world, including performances at Carnegie Hall, Wigmore Hall, Concertgebouw in Amsterdam, Konzerthaus in Vienna, Suntory Hall in Tokyo, and Philharmonie in Cologne.

In 2009, as soloists of the "Night of the Proms," they performed live to half a million people in arenas across Europe. The twins have won over ten international prizes at major competitions in New York, London, Germany, France and Hungary and are currently artists in residence in San Francisco. The wide repertoire of the duo spans from Bach to Piazzolla's tango music and their own arrangements of pop classics. Their programs also include concertos for two guitars and orchestra by Rodrigo, Vivaldi, Piazzolla and Tedesco. Several contemporary composers have written for and dedicated works to the Katona Twins.

The duo studied in Budapest, Frankfurt and in London. The Katona Twins have been invited on numerous occasions to record for the BBC and other international television and radio stations. Their CD releases include music by Scarlatti and Handel, Rodrigo, Albéniz, Piazzolla and Manuel de Falla. Peter and Zoltan Katona were born in Hungary, are German citizens, and live in Liverpool in the UK.
